Subject: Internal Competition, 2016 Searle Scholars Program: UM Deadline 6/30/15

The University’s internal deadline for the limited submission competition for the 2016 Searle Scholars Program is 6/30/15. If you are interested, please read on for details.

- Program Announcement: http://www.searlescholars.net

- Purpose: The Searle Scholars Program was established at The Chicago Community Trust in 1980. The program supports the independent research of outstanding individuals who are in their first appointment at the assistant professor level, and whose current appointment is a tenure-track position. Applicants for year 2016 awards will be expected to be pursuing independent research careers in biochemistry, cell biology, genetics, immunology, neuroscience, pharmacology, and related areas in chemistry, medicine, and the biological sciences.

- Eligibility:
  - Applicant must have begun their first appointment as an independent investigator at the assistant professor level on or after July 1, 2014
  - Applicant must be in their first tenure-track position

- Funds Available & Anticipated Number of Awards: The Searle Scholars Program anticipates $4,500,000 available and expects to award 15 grants this year.

- Budget & Project Period: $100,000 per year for three years; funding for the second and third years will be contingent upon the submission of acceptable progress reports.

- Application Details: Since the University of Miami may only submit one (1) proposal, this opportunity is a limited submission competition. An expert panel will internally review our candidates to determine which application will be submitted for competition by the Searle Scholars Program deadline on September 30, 2015

To apply, please send the following materials to Karen Lamper at klamper@miami.edu by 6/30/15:

- Title of Proposal
- Your biosketch, including current and pending support.
- A brief summary of your project (no more than two pages).
